Program Speakers

Aaron Greenwood is a Marketing Representative in the state of Mississippi. Aaron is responsible for the Northwest portion of Mississippi from Olive Branch to Greenwood. Aaron began his Federated career in 2015 where he was a successful marketing representative in South Nashville, Tennessee. Aaron earned the trust of hundreds of business owners in the areas of safety, risk, and business management; focusing on value, service, and relationships. Aaron played college baseball for the University of Mississippi and then was drafted by the Houston Astros.

Dr. Danielle Maack received her Ph.D. from the University of Wyoming in 2010, and completed residency and a postdoctoral fellowship at the University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson, Mississippi. Dr. Maack specializes in the treatment of mood and anxiety disorders in adults, couples therapy, and diagnostic assessment. Her specialty training in organizational behavior consulting makes her ideal for human factors consultation and projects focused on integrating psychology into primary care settings.

Nick Morisani is an attorney with Phelps Dunbar LLP. His practice includes a unique blend of labor and employment and civil rights litigation involving jail and prison operations. Through his labor and employment practice, Nick advises private and public employers facing employment issues and defends them against discrimination, retaliation, sexual harassment and other employment claims.

Steven Stout has served as the Executive Director for the Texas Society of Association Executives (TSAE) since late 2016. Before TSAE Steven was with Hospitality Financial & Technology Professionals (HFTP®), an international hospitality association, where he served in various roles over 14 years. Stout was selected as 1 of 10 US Nationwide Diversity Executive Leadership Program Scholars (DELP) by the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) in 2008, earned the Certified Association Executive (CAE) professional designation in 2009, and was awarded the Texas Society of Association Executives' (TSAE) Young Professional of the Year Award in 2010.
